STRIKE ON WEDNESDAY 30TH NOVEMBER 2011

Dear Parents/Carers

Parents will have followed media reports of a strike by members of NUT, NASUWT and ATL in connection with the dispute between unions and government over pensions. The arrangements for Latymer students are:

TIMETABLED LESSONS: These will take place only for sixth form classes, for those teachers who are not on strike. Students are to attend school just for those lessons. Sixth form students will be provided, in a separate communication, with the timetable of lessons we are able to provide. There will be no form tutor registration morning or afternoon. Students will be registered in each lesson. All other students, Years 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, are to work at home for the day.

LUNCH: This will be provided for sixth form students, but it will be a cold service only.

PERIPATETIC MUSIC LESSONS: There will be none. Parents will not be charged for any lesson expected on that day.

MUSIC REHEARSALS: There will be none.

4PM LECTURE: It has been postponed, it will be rearranged for a later date.

If the strike is cancelled, there will be a notice posted here <http://www.latymer.co.uk>
All lessons will then take place as usual.

Yours sincerely
